

Get A Kick Out of Sharing™

You can put a soccer ball at the feet of a child in need around the world. Participate in our Get A Kick Out of Sharing program. You will be joining a nationwide effort from youth players, coaches, churches, professional teams and sporting goods companies in obtaining donations of new and gently used balls for children in need.

The Get A Kick Out of Sharing program is an effort to obtain donations of 250,000 soccer balls. These balls will go to children who live in World Vision regions around the world. These children love soccer but play with sock balls, rag balls, or bundles of plastic banded together.

Children love soccer. You can share the joy of soccer and give hope by becoming a Get A Kick Out of Sharing teammate.
