Dear Friend,

The past year, World Vision has continued to reach into some of the world’s most broken, heart-wrenching places. Our 44,000 dedicated staff in almost 100 countries have worked to bring tangible expressions of compassion and generosity, where it is needed most—war-torn Syria and South Sudan; hurricane-ravaged Haiti; brothels in urban slums. Places where courageous mothers, fathers, and children are desperate for hope.

Our dedicated staff and those we serve have partnered to achieve so much. Advocating for women and girls, building clean water systems, protecting children’s health, feeding hungry communities. Assembling the pieces of God’s power, you and our partners helped us together reach the lives of 41 million children and their families this year.

Together, we are part of a worldwide movement where it’s needed most—war-torn Syria and South Sudan; hurricane-ravaged Haiti; brothels in urban slums. Places where courageous mothers, fathers, and children are desperate for hope.
