

COPY OF FORM 990

(TO BE USED, OR COPIED, FOR)

PUBLIC INSPECTION ONLY

NOTE

Under Internal Revenue Regulations, tax-exempt charitable organizations generally must provide requesters with COPIES of:

- Its approved exemption applications, all required attachments and any related correspondence with the IRS, and
- Its three most recent annual information returns (Form 990), including all schedules and attachments (but not the names and addresses of contributors).

In-person requests: A member of the public may request to inspect the documents at any principal office of the organization. The entity must provide the information requested that same day. However, if the request places an “unreasonable burden” on the organization, the staff must provide copies of the requested information no later than the next business day after the unusual circumstances cease to exist (limited to a maximum of five business days after the request).

Written requests: Written requests made by fax, mail, email, or overnight service, which include the requester’s address, must be honored within 30 days of receipt.

Website alternative: Instead of providing copies, an organization may make the documents available on either its own or another organization's website. If it uses this option, it has to: (1) provide an exact replica of the document as was filed with the IRS; (2) advise requesters how to access the forms on the web; (3) the site should charge no access fee and require no special software or hardware to download. Organizations that post this information on the Internet still must honor in-person requests to view the applicable documents.

Permissible charges: Tax-exempt organizations may charge a reasonable copying fee, up to $1 for the first page and 15 cents for each additional page, plus actual postage costs.

Penalties: An organization that fails to comply with the new disclosure requirements may be subject to the following penalties:

- Annual Information Return – Form 990 - $20 per day for as long as the failure continues, up to a maximum of $10,000 for each failure to provide an annual return.
- Exemption Application - $20 per day with no maximum.
- An organization that willfully fails to comply with these public inspection rules can be subject to an additional $5,000 penalty.

Private foundation exempt: The new disclosure rules don't yet apply to private foundations. They must still make a copy of their annual return available for public inspection at their principal office for a period of 180 days after publishing a notice of availability.

Donor Information: Please note that donor information is not open to public inspection and has been excluded from this copy.

Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III [X]

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission: World Vision, Inc. is a 501 (C) (3) Christian humanitarian organization dedicated to working with children, families, and their communities to reach their full potential, in nearly 100 countries, by helping tackle the causes of poverty and injustice. (Cont. on Sch O.)

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? [] Yes [X] No If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? [] Yes [X] No If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 789,164,108. including grants of $ 760,699,833.) (Revenue $) International Programs - The Organization partners with families and communities around the world to find ways to overcome poverty, helping them obtain sustainable access to basic resources and services such as clean water, food assistance, agricultural training, healthcare, economic development, child protection, and other goods and services. One of the Organization's primary funding sources for this work is child sponsorship, through which the Organization's staff in impoverished communities seek to improve children's physical, emotional, and spiritual well-being through a relationship with their sponsorship donor. Additionally, the Organization responds to natural and man-made disasters to save lives and help restore livelihoods. For additional information visit www.worldvision.org/about-us/how-we-work.

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 74,467,991. including grants of $ 12,587,033.) (Revenue $ 509,597.) Domestic Programs - The Organization works with local churches, teachers, business owners, students, and volunteers throughout the United States as they seek to serve distressed communities and neighborhoods in a variety of U.S. locations. This work is carried out in part through the Organization's network of product distribution centers, emergency response efforts, and tutoring and youth development programs.

4c (Code:) (Expenses $ 4,451,221. including grants of $) (Revenue $) Public Awareness and Education - The Organization seeks to help government officials and the public gain awareness and take action on poverty and justice-related issues. World Vision advocates on behalf of children and the poor to increase understanding of issues, involvement in solutions, and prayer support.

4d Other program services (Describe in Schedule O.) (Expenses $ including grants of $) (Revenue $)

4e Total program service expenses 868,083,320.

Part I, Line 2:

Explanation: World Vision Inc implements its international activities through branch offices of World Vision International, a related entity under U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) organized in the United States.

The Organization is committed to strong program and financial management of grant awards to ensure that donor funds are used for their intended purposes. World Vision promotes solid comprehension and effective utilization of grant regulations, policies and resources to successfully execute US government-funded projects through the following:

Grants Compliance Capacity Building which promote the comprehension of grant requirements, knowledge of best practices and hands-on experience with regulations and related policies as prerequisite for effective grant compliance. Efforts include a comprehensive internally developed certification program; field desk guides on high priority issues; start-up workshops; and field visits and coaching. Grant Reporting:

World Vision complies with all program and financial reporting as required by each donor. Policies and Manuals: World Vision has established comprehensive and uniform policies and procedures that promote best business practices to ensure efficient and effective internal controls. Internal Audit: World Vision has a strong internal audit function with auditors based at the headquarters and international partners based in field offices. These functions routinely conduct audits on grant funded programs to ensure compliance with regulatory requirement. External Audit: Grant funded programs are audited annually as part of the organization's financial statement and government grant

Part I, Line 2b, Column (iii)

Explanation: Donorworx employees may collect cash donations. These cash donations are secured in a lock box and sent to World Vision at the end of each day.

Part I, Line 2b, Column (iv)

Explanation: Gross receipts from activity represent only the initial gift made through the retail marketers. Future monthly sponsorship payments are not reflected in this total. As the period of sponsorship commitment is indefinite, the length of time an individual donor stays with World Vision and the amount they contribute over that period will vary. World Vision receives average total gifts considerably in excess of the initial gift reported here.

In regards to the fundraising consultants: Due to the nature of the consultants' assistance to World Vision, no revenue is specifically attributable to them. They assist World Vision in many aspects of our fundraising efforts throughout the Organization. Some of the work is related to the current year fundraising efforts and others are related to the securing the future of the organization. No mechanism is in place to capture which donations are related to the assistance received from these consultants. None of them have custody or control of any contributions.

Additionally some of the costs paid to Blue North, Dunham & Company, and Russ Reid Company are purely ministerial, therefore they are not included in the amounts paid listed on Schedule G. The costs include printing, postage and freight. In FY14, these costs were $373,267, $18,561, and $1,956,235 for Blue North, Dunham & Company, and Russ Reid Company, respectively.

Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

Part I, Line 2:

Explanation: World Vision Inc is committed to strong program and financial management of grant awards to ensure that donor funds and non-cash assistance are used for their intended purposes. World Vision promotes solid comprehension and effective utilization of grant regulations, policies and resources to successfully execute US government-funded projects through the following:

Grants Compliance Capacity Building which promotes the comprehension of grant requirements, knowledge of best practices and hands-on experience

Part IV Supplemental Information

with regulations and related policies as prerequisites for effective grant compliance. Efforts include an internally developed certification program; field desk guides on high priority issues; start-up workshops; and field visits and coaching.

Grant Reporting: World Vision complies with all program and financial reporting as required by each donor.

Policies and Manuals: World Vision has established comprehensive and uniform policies and procedures that promote best business practices to ensure efficient and effective internal controls.

Internal Audit: World Vision has a strong internal audit function with auditors based at the headquarters and international partners based in field offices. These functions routinely conduct audits on grant funded programs to ensure compliance with regulatory requirement. External Audit: Grant-funded programs are audited annually as part of the organization's financial statement and government grant Circular A-133 audits.

World Vision primarily donates cash to other organizations through Donor-Advised Funds (DAFs) and sub-grants. Additionally, there are a few donations to other organizations.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:

Motivated by our faith in Jesus Christ, we serve alongside the poor and oppressed as a demonstration of God's unconditional love for all people. World Vision serves all people, regardless of religion, race, ethnicity, or gender.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 1:

Explanation: The Organization has an executive committee with authority to act on behalf of the governing body. The committee includes the board chair, vice chair, and standing committee chairs. The committee is chaired by the board chair. It may act on behalf of the board between meetings.
In addition to responsibilities and limitations on its authority outlined in the bylaws, the committee may not change the bylaws nor appoint/terminate or accept a resignation from the president. The committee serves the board by overseeing relationships with other organizations (including any subsidiary or supporting corporations), public affairs, and the board's annual evaluation of the president and his compensation.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11:

Explanation: Form 990 is provided to the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors by internal audit after it is approved by management and reviewed by our external tax firm. The Audit Committee reviews Form 990 and raises any questions to management for resolution. Finally, Form 990 is provided to the entire Board of Directors for final review and commentary before it is filed electronically with the IRS and posted to World Vision's web site.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

Explanation: World Vision has a written Conflict of Interest Policy.

Annually all employees complete a disclosure form identifying transactions and relationships which may be a conflict of interest. Management reviews all disclosed conflicts and determines whether any conflict exists. Any conflicts are raised for review to a committee which includes the CFO, Internal Audit and Legal. Whatever action deemed necessary by this committee is taken, sometimes in consultation with the President. Internal Audit provides a summary report to the Board of Directors via the Audit Committee. There is a similar process for the Board of Directors to submit a conflict of interest disclosure form annually. The Board of Directors disclosures are reviewed by management. Any issues are taken to the Board of Directors for resolution, excluding the Board member for whom the conflict exists.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

Explanation: The Board of Directors mandates the compensation philosophy for the entire organization.

The President's salary is reviewed on an annual basis. The Board's Executive Committee will formally evaluate the president based on performance and organizational goals after seeking documented input from each member of the Board, as well as the WVUS Senior Leadership team. The Board also determines and documents any compensation adjustments. In addition, the Compensation Committee, a sub-group of the Board of Directors, utilizes several for-profit and non-profit salary surveys to establish and validate the CEO's salary on an annual basis. Once the data is gathered and analyzed by the committee, the recommended compensation package for the President is presented to the full Board for approval.

The process for determining the compensation grade levels for Senior Vice Presidents of World Vision is managed and documented by the World Vision US' Compensation Manager. All Senior Vice President positions are evaluated and matched to market data of both for-profit and nonprofit organizations where similar positions exist. The President approves the specific salary of each Senior Vice President within the appropriate grade level and within WVUS salary administration guidelines based upon recommendation of the Compensation Manager and Compensation Grading Committee. In addition, periodic audits and reviews are conducted utilizing an outside consultant to validate the compensation levels of the Senior Vice Presidents are consistent with our compensation philosophy and current market data.
