

COPY OF FORM 990

(TO BE USED, OR COPIED, FOR)

PUBLIC INSPECTION ONLY

NOTE

Under Internal Revenue Regulations, tax-exempt charitable organizations generally must provide requesters with COPIES of:

- Its approved exemption applications, all required attachments and any related correspondence with the IRS, and
- Its three most recent annual information returns (Form 990), including all schedules and attachments (but not the names and addresses of contributors).

In-person requests: A member of the public may request to inspect the documents at any principal office of the organization. The entity must provide the information requested that same day. However, if the request places an “unreasonable burden” on the organization, the staff must provide copies of the requested information no later than the next business day after the unusual circumstances cease to exist (limited to a maximum of five business days after the request).

Written requests: Written requests made by fax, mail, email, or overnight service, which include the requester’s address, must be honored within 30 days of receipt.

Website alternative: Instead of providing copies, an organization may make the documents available on either its own or another organization's website. If it uses this option, it has to: (1) provide an exact replica of the document as was filed with the IRS; (2) advise requesters how to access the forms on the web; (3) the site should charge no access fee and require no special software or hardware to download. Organizations that post this information on the Internet still must honor in-person requests to view the applicable documents.

Permissible charges: Tax-exempt organizations may charge a reasonable copying fee, up to $1 for the first page and 15 cents for each additional page, plus actual postage costs.

Penalties: An organization that fails to comply with the new disclosure requirements may be subject to the following penalties:

- Annual Information Return – Form 990 - $20 per day for as long as the failure continues, up to a maximum of $10,000 for each failure to provide an annual return.
- Exemption Application - $20 per day with no maximum.
- An organization that willfully fails to comply with these public inspection rules can be subject to an additional $5,000 penalty.

Private foundation exempt: The new disclosure rules don't yet apply to private foundations. They must still make a copy of their annual return available for public inspection at their principal office for a period of 180 days after publishing a notice of availability.

Donor Information: Please note that donor information is not open to public inspection and has been excluded from this copy.

Part V Supplemental Information

Complete this part to provide the information required by Part I, line 2 (monitoring of funds); Part I, line 3, column (f) (accounting method; amounts of investments vs. expenditures per region); Part II, line 1 (accounting method); Part III (accounting method); and Part III, column (c) (estimated number of recipients), as applicable. Also complete this part to provide any additional information.

Schedule F, Part I, Line 2: WVUS implements its international activities through branch offices of World Vision International, a related entity organized in the United States.

WVUS is committed to strong program and financial management of grant awards to ensure that donor funds are used for their intended purposes.

World Vision promotes solid comprehension and effective utilization of grant regulations, policies and resources to successfully execute US government-funded projects through the following:

Grants Compliance Capacity Building which promote the comprehension of grant requirements, knowledge of best practices and hands-on experience with regulations and related policies as prerequisite for effective grant compliance. Efforts include a comprehensive internally developed certification program; field desk guides on high priority issues;

start-up workshops; and field visits and coaching. Grant Reporting:

World Vision complies with all program and financial reporting as required by each donor. Policies and Manuals: World Vision has established comprehensive and uniform policies and procedures that promote best business practices to ensure efficient and effective internal controls. Internal Audit: World Vision has a strong internal audit function with auditors based at the headquarters and international partners based in field offices. These functions routinely conduct audits on grant funded programs to ensure compliance with regulatory requirement. External Audit: Grant funded programs are audited annually as part of the organization's financial statement and government grant

Circular A133 audits.

Part IV Supplemental Information. Complete this part to provide the information required in Part I, line 2, and any other additional information.

Schedule I, Part I, Line 2: WVUS is committed to strong program and financial management of grant awards to ensure that donor funds are used for their intended purposes. World Vision promotes solid comprehension and effective utilization of grant regulations, policies and resources to successfully execute US government-funded projects through the following:

Grants Compliance Capacity Building which promotes the comprehension of grant requirements, knowledge of best practices and hands-on experience with regulations and related policies as prerequisites for effective grant compliance. Efforts include an internally developed certification program;

Part IV Supplemental Information

field desk guides on high priority issues; start-up workshops; and field visits and coaching.

Grant Reporting: World Vision complies with all program and financial reporting as required by each donor.

Policies and Manuals: World Vision has established comprehensive and uniform policies and procedures that promote best business practices to ensure efficient and effective internal controls.

Internal Audit: World Vision has a strong internal audit function with auditors based at the headquarters and international partners based in field offices. These functions routinely conduct audits on grant funded programs to ensure compliance with regulatory requirement. External Audit: Grant-funded programs are audited annually as part of the organization's financial statement and government grant Circular A-133 audits.

World Vision primarily donates cash to other organizations through Donor-Advised Funds (DAFs) and sub-grants. Additionally, there are a few donations to other organizations.

Schedule I, Part II

The reader will note that grants made to U.S. organizations for the purpose of foreign activity will be reported in Schedule I, Part II as well as in Schedule F, Part II in order to comply with the instructions which state that Schedule I, Part II must include all grants to U.S. organizations, and Schedule F, Part II must include all grants to U.S. organizations for the purpose of foreign activity.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:

faith in Jesus Christ, we serve alongside the poor and oppressed as a demonstration of Gods unconditional love for all people. World Vision serves all people, regardless of religion, race, ethnicity, or gender.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments:

man-made disasters with goods and services that help people get back on their feet and on the road to self-reliance. While most disasters cannot be predicted, our staff monitors local conditions and indicators for potential disasters, including positioning relief supplies and, when possible, helping communities prepare to save lives and property.
We respond quickly and effectively to emergencies, and stay as long as needed to help people rebuild their lives and communities.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d, Other Program Services:

Other Program Services: Other program services include grants to other ministries, public awareness and education. We provide gifts-in-kind and monetary donations to partner ministries that share our commitment to serve the poor and help address injustice. We believe God calls His people to uphold the cause of the oppressed, including children who are exploited or abandoned. We advocate against these injustices by working to build a world where children are protected and cared for where children are no longer forced to survive on their own or participate in war, unsafe working conditions, or the sex trade. We pursue justice for the poor and advocate with leaders of governments and international institutions to help address the causes of poverty and alleviate the suffering of children. We promote awareness of poverty and justice issues, seeking to protect children and families from exploitation and abuse through various educational programs, and by seeking to influence corporate, government, and international policies.

Expenses $ 74,500,550. incl grants of $ 63,243,693. Revenue $ 154,023.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11: The 990 is provided to the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors by internal audit after it is approved by management and reviewed by our external tax firm. The Audit Committee reviews the 990 and raises any issues to management for resolution. The final 990 is e-mailed to the entire Board of Directors, then filed electronically with the IRS and posted to World Vision's web site.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c: World Vision has a written Conflict of Interest Policy. Annually all employees complete a disclosure form identifying transactions and relationships which may be a conflict of interest. Management reviews all disclosed conflicts and determines whether any conflict exists. Any conflicts are raised for review to a committee which includes the CFO, Internal Audit and Legal. Whatever action deemed necessary by this committee is taken, sometimes in consultation with the President. Internal Audit provides a summary report to the Board of Directors via the Audit Committee. There is a similar process for the Board of Directors to submit a conflict of interest disclosure form annually. The Board of Directors disclosures are reviewed by management. Any issues are taken to the Board of Directors for resolution, excluding the Board member for whom the conflict exists.

Name of the organization World Vision Inc	Employer identification number 95-1922279

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15: Annually the Executive Committee, after seeking input from all directors and the SVP of Human Resources will formally evaluate the president based on performance and organizational goals. The Board also determines any compensation adjustments. Annually, the Compensation Committee, a sub-group of the Board of Directors, utilizes several for-profit and non-profit salary surveys to establish and validate the CEO's salary. Once the data is gathered and analyzed by the committee, the recommended compensation package is presented to the full Board for approval. The President's salary was last reviewed and evaluated against market data by the Compensation Committee in 2011.

The Board of Directors mandates the compensation philosophy for the entire organization. The process for determining the compensation grade levels for Senior Vice Presidents of World Vision is managed by the Compensation Manager. All Senior Vice President positions are evaluated and matched to market data of both for-profit and nonprofit organizations where similar positions exist. The President approves the specific salary of each Senior Vice President within the appropriate grade level and within WVUS salary administration guidelines based upon recommendation of the Compensation Manager and Compensation Grading Committee. In addition, periodic audits and reviews are conducted utilizing an outside consultant to validate the compensation levels of the Senior Vice Presidents are consistent with our compensation philosophy and current market data. A total compensation review was completed in 2011 by an outside consultant.
